ICELAND – INTO THE BLUE LAGOON

One of Iceland's most popular attractions is a "hotspot" that draws more than 400,000 visitors a year—the Blue Lagoon. With warm geothermal waters drawn from more than a mile beneath the Svartsengi Power Plant, the Blue Lagoon is renowned for the restorative properties of its vividly aquamarine waters. On all Princess® itineraries calling in Iceland's capital of Reykjavik, you'll have the chance to visit this marvel on an excursion. Shower, grab your suit and hop in for a soak. And don't miss the Blue Lagoon's gift shop for mineral-rich skin products made from the lagoon's waters.

FANTASTIC FJORDS & GLACIAL ATTRACTIONS

Some of cruising's most dramatic sights are to be found in northern latitudes – like the glacier-carved landscapes of Norway and Iceland. Fjords are deep water-filled canyon channels with steep cliff faces, carved by the advancing and retreating of glaciers. On our Fire & Ice and Iceland & Norway sailings on the intimate Pacific Princess®, as well as Norway itineraries on Crown Princess®, you'll have the opportunity to see these natural wonders including one of the most fabled Norwegian fjords, breathtaking Geirangerfjord, and Iceland's spectacular Eastern Fjords near the port of Seydisfjörður.

THE MIDNIGHT SUN

As the days grow longer in the far north, the “sunset” never quite reaches the horizon before rising back up again. The summer sun remains in the sky for a full 24 hours. It’s called the Midnight Sun, something you can only see if you venture inside the Arctic Circle at precisely the right time of year. And Princess® can take you there. Choose among several sailings that bring you to the dramatic North Cape, well inside the Arctic Circle, including the sensational 18-day Midnight Sun & Spitsbergen sailing on the intimate Pacific Princess®, and see this dramatic phenomenon for yourself!
